

Dear TNRF Member,

Round Table Africa in collaboration with the Eastern and Southern African Management Institute, Maastricht School of Management, the Honey Guide Foundation, Karibu Fair and Tanzania Natural Resource Forum are organizing a roundtable discussion on Responsible Tourism on June 3rd, 2010 at the Arusha Hotel. For more information please go to: www.tnrf.org/responsible_tourism.

The Roundtable will bring together players from the public sector, private sector and civil society working in the tourism sector. The objectives of the meeting are:

1. To provide an opportunity for business people and government representatives to better understand the meaning and elements of Responsible Tourism.
2. To provide concrete examples of responsible tourism practices and innovations from Tanzanian tourism businesses.
3. To ascertain the need a Responsible Tourism association in Tanzania, and to identify the role it will play in fostering responsible practices in the sector (e.g. offer evaluation, accreditation and training on responsible tourism).

We hope that a representative from your organization will be able to attend in order to represent their experience with Responsible Tourism. Please find attached a Program and Registration Form which must be returned to Round Table Africa-ESAMI by June 1st, 2010.

Regards
